

This document should be revised. I believe that there should be a section that disallows telemarketers, and autodialers from targeting cell phones. I have been harrassed a number of occations in traffic by telemarketers that call my cell phone. It should be banned, and telemarketers that do call should be fined by the government and, and the money put into government funds, to further prevent the problem.